

NEIGHBORS IN THE NEWS

Professional

Eugene C. Travers has joined the New York law firm Goldman Harris as a land use and zoning associate. He received a law degree from New York Law School in May 2010. Prior to joining Goldman Harris, Eugene completed a one year fellowship with the center for New York City Law. Eugene is the son of Angela and Gene Travers recently of Port Washington and currently in Manhasset.

Henry "Hank" Boerner, chairman, Governance & Accountability Institute, has been named to the National Association of Corporate Directors' (NACD's) 2011 Directorship 100 "People to Watch" roster, in recognition of his work promoting the highest standards of corporate governance.

Mr. Boerner will be among those recognized at a gala dinner on Nov. 8 at the Waldorf Astoria in New York, during the NACD Directorship 100 Forum. As Chairman of Governance & Accountability Institute, Mr. Boerner has shown his commitment to NACD's mission of promoting board diversity and boardroom excellence by his more than 30 years of involvement in corporate governance affairs, including the last 10 years as contributing editor of Corporate Finance Review (the professional journal published by Thomson Reuters, and his work as strategist and advisor through G&A Institute).

"The D100 honorees represent the most influential leaders whose decisions impact both Wall Street and Main Street and echo around the globe," said Kenneth Daly, president and CEO of NACD. "As the voice of the director, it is important for NACD to help set the standard by recognizing these visionaries as examples to others."

To view the full list of 2011 NACD Di-

HENRY BOERNER

rectorship 100 honorees, visit www.NACDonline.org/2011-D100-Honorees.

Bruce B. Wilmer is a '62 MHS graduate whose family lived in Munsey Park on Hunt Lane from 1939 to 1979. His new book of poetry, Time Cries: A Poet's Response to 9/11, discussed at brucewilmer.com and Amazon.com, has a poem about the tragic impact of 9/11 on Manhasset, "73 Unclaimed Cars," based upon the post-9/11 comments of Parks Commissioner Patricia Roberts quoted in the Tower Foundation reprint of J.R. Moehringer's moving article in the Summer, 2002 Tower News.

Wilmer read the poem at his 40th MHS reunion in October 2002.