

NEIGHBORS IN THE NEWS

Career

Henry ("Hank") Boerner, of Manhasset, managing director, New York for the issue and crisis management consulting firm of Rowan and Blewitt, has been elected chairperson of the Leesburg, Virginia-based Issue Management Council. With membership worldwide, IMC is an organization of corporate management professionals focused on addressing emerging issues that can potentially impact their organization - their operations, direction, goals and profitability. First named to the IMC Board of Directors in 2002, Boerner is recognized for his expertise in corporate communications and is an authority on corporate governance, corporate and institutional accountability and social responsibility trends that affect corporations, the public sector, non-profit organizations and trade associations.

Before becoming a consultant, Boerner was an officer of the New York Stock Exchange and served as the senior communications manager for the exchange. He has also held senior public relations, marketing and public affairs posts with the NYS Metropolitan Transportation Authority and American Airlines. Boerner is a member of the National Investor Relations Institute (NIRI) and is corporate governance columnist for its publication, NIRI Update. He serves as an independent arbitrator and mediator and is a member of the American Bar Association's Section of Resolution Dispute.

HANK BOENER